THE EVENING STAR. WASHINGTON: WEDNESDAY......July 28, 1886.

Editor. The Evening Star has a regular, permanent bona fide daily circulation more than treble that of any other daily paper published in Washington, and equal to that of all the other daily papers here added

As usual in affairs involving the relations of Mexico and the United States, there is a great | 25cts. deal of contradictory assertion and rumor in regard to the Cutting incident. The most trustworthy accounts, however, exhibit the affair in the light of a personal and local disturbance. of little if any importance outside of the limits | 48cts. of El Paso del Norte. The Texas delegation in 4 inches wide Oriental Lace, 5cts. Congress laugh at it, and say that the border Is in a chronic state of mimic warfare. Intelligent Mexicans residing in or visiting New York and other American cities at present have been interviewed about the matter, and they one and all deny that it can have any international significance. The simple fact seems to be that Mexico is just now in the throes of political transition, and the effort to consolidate all her petty states into a single republic is meeting worth 65cts. with all the resistance from jealous subordinate officials that is usually encountered in such at half price. cases. The Chihuahua authorities, for instance. do not like to be dictated to by the central au- $1.25. thorities, and so they hold Cutting to show their power and "spunk." Add to this the other well-known fact that the people living on either side of the Rio Grande are a very rough crowd of smugglers, gamblers, cattle drivers, ets. per yard. horse thieves and half-breeds, and it will be seen how irresponsible the Mexican central government is in the Cutting case. There is in | in good length remnants, at 10cts. per yd. reality only a semblance of law and order or government in Mexico; and those Americans who go down there to reside or to spy out the land do so at the risk of their lives.

The House went through the river and harbor bill yesterday on the same principle that a bull employs in an excursion through a china shop, slaughtering the Senate amendments in discriminately, and of course the Potomac river appropriation suffered the common fate. In its present shape, if it can be said to have any shape at all, the bill is a farce and a swindle on the people, and unless Congress will take time to remodel it thoroughly and intelligently, the best thing to do will be to let it die and begin over again next winter. The Potomac improvement should have been provided for in 25 ts. a separate bill, of course, but it is as appropriately in this bill as many other items there, and far more worthy of passage than most of those to which the House consents.

Apparently nothing will prevent Congress from adjourning next Saturday or Monday, unless the President should take it into his head to veto one or two big bills. He is perfectly right in his alleged determination to examine all bills which reach him at a late hour, with his usual careful and leisurely scrunity; and if by so doing be should keep Congress here a while longer in the midst of the dog-days, the members would have only themselves to blame, for, with ordinary industry, they might have finished everything up in June just as easily as in August.

The new British premier does not make an impressive beginning. His program is about as vague and ambiguous as anything that has been made public since the oracular utterances of Capt. Bunsby, while his naive request that the conservative caucus keep secret what recalls the childlike simplicity of the Captain's good friend, Edward Cuttle, mariner. The good friend, Edward Cuttle, market to solve Twice A Year. the Irish problem, but the tories will never be able to solve it; and as it is a question that must be met and settled very soon, the chances for Lord Salisbury's long continuance in office are not particularly brilliant.

Base ball has got into court in New York, and a learned lawyer of that city enlightened the judge as to the points of the game. "The duty of one side," he said, "is to strike the ball with a bat, and then rotate around the field." This being so, the National base ball club of this city is clearly derelict. Its members seldom "strike the ball with a bat," and they "rotate around the field" lar too infrequently to satisfy the long-suffering spectators.

Mrs. Cleveland deserves the thanks of the country for shutting down on the pet nickname "Frankie." She would have done still better If she had also tabooed "Frank" as a feminine appellation. Frank is a name of the male persuasion, and no woman has any right to it. The corresponding feminine name is Frances. The report that the colored gentleman named Scott, who died in Baltimore yesterday, was 153 years old is manifestly absurd. Mr. Scott never claimed to have hobnobbed with the late George Washington. The Philadelphia papers strongly favor the proposed extradition treaty. And no wonder; that steady-going city is lately averaging about one full-grown embezzlement a month.

The fountain pen has developed a new terror.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE.

420-422-424-426 SEVENTH STREET. Coolest store for shopping. Patent fans in all parts

We take stock, at the end of the winter season in February and the close of the summer

A week previous to these events we inaugurate a reduction sale of "All Short Lengths," "Odd Sizes," "Broken lines," Odd Lots, "Novelties," etc., in other words the legitimate, seasonable, Left-overs, or "Leavings" of the six months' business: these we mark at a lower price in order to cause their instant disposal. In one way, selling at sacrificing prices pays; in another it doesn't. The story is too long for to-

Two-and-a-half days longer, Thursday, Friday and Saturday (half day), and the store is overrun with Bargains. In conjunction with the lots previously advertised, we quote the following: STOCK-TAKING MARK-DOWN IN FINE JER-

It is too late in the day to say we ought not have bought them, hence we do the next best thing, by selling them at the best price possi-

We asked the head of the department what price would close out the lot by Saturday. Here is his answer: 13 Fine Imported Braided Jerseys coat back, upright collar, silk braid trimming on collar, cuffs, down the front and around Mode, sizes 2-36, 1-38; Drab, sizes 1-34, 2-36; Garnet, sizes 1-36, 3-38; Brown, sizes 2-34, 1-36; Reduced from $7.50 to $2 Each. We think $5.50 off ought to sell them.

Also, offer to close, 11 Fine Stockinette Jerseys, standing collar, full back, finished with satin bow. Navy, sizes 2-36, 1-38, 2-40; Garnet, sizes 2-38 and 3-40:

Reduced from $2.50 to $1 Each. (Second floor; take elevator.) WE HAVE EXACTLY 115 PARASOLS. Possibly the smallest stock and probably the choicest bargains shown by any house in this

Can we sell them all by Saturday? If this advertisement catches the eye of 115 ladies who want a parasol, we think we can, for the reasons that the styles are the latest and best, the colors particularly desirable, and the prices represent only about one-third, one-half and two-thirds their former price.

That the prices were originally low enough is evidenced by the successful season we have had, having sold more than during any preceding season since we have been in business. Are these prices low enough? Children's Pongee Silk Parasols marked, from $1.25 to 75c. each. Striped Satin Parasols, marked from $3 to $1.50 each. Laced-trimmed Black Satin Parasols, marked from $5 to $3.75 each.
Laght Blue Silk Brocade Parasols, lace-trimmed, marked from $8 to $3 each.
I lot of Parasols, Plain, Figured and Brocaded; also, a few Pongee Silks, marked from $2, $2.50, $3 and -4 to $1.50 choice. Checked and Striped Silk Parasols, marked from $4 and $5 to $2.50 each. Turk Satin (two-sided) Parasols, marked from $3.56 to $2.50 each. Imported Turk Sa in Parasols, marked from

$4.25 to $3 each. 1 Lot of Parasois, black satin, with white and old gold slik lining; cardinal, with cream and cardinal lining; brown satin, with brown silk lining, marked from $3.50 and $4 to $2.50 1 Flegant Pongee Silk Parasol, lined with seal brown silk, trimmed on outside with cut velvet squares, marked from $6.75 to $3.75 Remember the above constitutes the stock, and these prices are made with a view of find ing an immediate customer, hence an early call is advisable. (Second floor; take elevator.) STOCK-TAKING MARK-DOWN IN LADIES SUMMER SKIRTS. Three lots go down as follows: Lot 1-Ladies' fine Gingham Skirts, four box-plaited ruffles, reduced from 75c. to 50c. Lot 2-Ladies' Mohair French Skirting and Lot 3-Ladies' Fine Colored Walking Skirts, three choice styles of French Striped Skirting, reduced from $1.25 to $1.00 each. (Second floor; take elevator.) LADIES GAUZE VESTS.

"Odd sizes," 36 and 38 only, 33 Ladles Fine Gauze Undervests, low neck and short sleeves, sizes 36 and 38. High neck and long sleeves, size 38. Extra value. Regular price During August we close at 5 p.m., except Saturday, that day at 1 p.m.
